“ Man! Men of men! One like no other! The best to ever do it! Best and most genuine father/friend a person can ever have! You were a success too me because of the love I saw that surrounded you. The nicknames for everything and the jokes always made any moment great. This was our headliner, our opening act and our host! Master of the crowd and leader of the people. The many memorable terms he used that were hilarious, always had me in tears. His presence was immediately felt when he came around, it inspired so many because he just made you feel good about yourself. I'm honored to be your son and I will always cherish the memories you left unto me! Love you Now and Forever! It will be a tough road but I'm so glad you don't have to suffer anymore Pop! Watch over me and give me strength ❤️ 🗳️ 🙏 🤝 🗳️ 🦅 Eagles Baby!!! 🙌 🥹 🗳️

“ Dwight is my cousin. When you were in his presence he made you feel special like you did great things. I always felt included when I was on Bayard Street largely due to him.

When I was in college, I had a Ford Taurus. It was my first car, and me and my friends traveled everywhere, especially to Penn State up in the mountains! Needless to say, I needed breaks every year! If my car made a peep, I'd say, "I gotta take my car to Dwight's!" I said it so much, my friends would be like oh, you need to go to Dwight's if anything was going on with my car. One day, I took my boyfriend with me, and as we pulled up to the corner of Bayard, he asked, "What are we doing here?" I said, I want my cousin Dwight to look at the car. He said, all this time I thought "Dwight's" was a service station with like 4 car bays! 🤔😭🤔 Nope! The best curbside mechanic gets the job done! I'll miss him and his welcoming personality at family gatherings! May he rest well! 🙏

Dwight used to work on my Mother's car, but never knew her name. He would call her Ms. Sherrie Mom...lol. One of the most genuine people you would ever want to meet. Peace In Paradise Dwight (MR. WADSWORTH)💚💚💚
