“ Elisa & Paul

I will always hold fond memories in my heart of your mother. Her laugh, her standing there in that security uniform and her telling us what we better not do knowing we would test her and do it. I still laugh when I hear a Billy Ocean song because it brings back fond memories of her mother dancing and singing and playing on repeat (Caribbean Queen). Your mother was a warm and loving person and I know that I gained much just by having been in her presence during my formative years. In my yearbook, your mother wrote, "Live the life you think is best for you". I have reminded myself of those words many times in my life and those words have carried me along the way.

I will keep you and your family in my thoughts during this sorrowful time.
