“ Jackie Van Loan and I were true sisters in Christ. We were members of Reformation Lutheran Church in Mt. Airy. During my visits with her, at her home during her illness, we would talk about bygone days, church goings-on, sing hymns and pray. Both of us loved word search puzzles, so I would be sure she had some -- and pens! :-)

On occasion, I was able to take her to church. She didn't sit with me, preferring to sit in her "usual seat". Frequently, we would talk on the phone and laugh. Over the years, I met members of her family and that was good. I will miss my "Sistahgirl in Christ."

Good night, my friend. See you in the morning. Dr. Addie J. Butler.
