Mr. Jim was a great model of a man. As a youngster living right next door ge was the only man as a youth i saw in a daily basis that made me in awe of his strength dedication and compassion. He was a big movie buff and i think thats where i inherited my love of film. He always would get the latest gadgets and i would be happy to just watch movies!!! Him and his lovely wife and family became our family for life. We just dont have connections these days as we had in them days but at least we have the comfort of our memories!!!

“ Rest peacefully Pop-pop. You lived a long full life of service, watched us all grow up, and hopefully I made you proud. I will cherish all the memories and times you came to visit us whether in NY or TX. My most fond memory was when me and you were left to babysit baby Kourtney while others were at the casino lol. She cried and cried and cried but you kept your cool and were able to get her to sleep and we sat in the chairs and watched Steven Seagal movies until the the early morning (well ...you fell asleep). Nonetheless you were an amazing Grandfather I wouldn't trade it for anything. Love you big foot. Rest in Heaven now as I am sure your at a card table right now with your in-laws.
