“ I first met Kevin on a pick up basketball court in Portland Maine 46 years ago. He was a student at St Josephs College and ball player there I was a young guy finding my way and spinning vinyl as a DJ on Portland's Best Rock FM 101 I look back at wonder how that court meeting lasted into a ife time friendship. Known to me simply as "Chiz" he would always reach out to me. We shared ice skating at Bear Mountain with his children, and more recently he came to see me with his children at Classical theatre of Harlem in Christmas Carol. Both of us actors we could talk about the biz or the latest films, he was gentle and kind. My eyes are filled with tears as I write this Only God knows when our last day will come and I sure wish I could share another ice skatae or talk about the Rangers or Knicks or enjoy a beer . OrListen to how much he hated taking subways but that will have to wait till I we meet in that special place in heaven. As the gospel song says " Where the charming roses bloom forever and where seperations come no more.....I will mee tyou on that beautiful shore" With love and respect your friend Steve Greenstein

“ I worked with Kevin many years ago, he was talented and had a great sense of humor, I saw him perform in plays and was always excited whenever I saw him on TV or in movies.
