Who Do You Turn To

Who do I turn to when my life turns blue,

I have faith but it was your smile too.

Who would've known that it would be you.

You forgave my demons and faults too.

The change started when we said I do.

My happiest days were when the cloudy skies turned blue.

Our journey has ended but I have to push through with help from God this shall pass too.

I won't ever forget all of the good times.

And like we said, we'll leave the bad ones behind.

I'll awake every day with you on my mind.

I thank God he took away your pain.

So this is a price that life makes us pay.

Sweetheart, I'm going to miss you for the rest of my day.

I love you Linda....Love always, Jamie

May I Go Now?

Do you think the time is right?

May I say good good-bye to pain filled days and endless lonely nights?

I've lived my life and done my best, an example I tried to be.

So can I take that step beyond and set my spirits free?

I didn't want to go at first; I fought with all my might.

But something seems to draw me now to a warm and living light.

I want to go, I really do, it's difficult to say, but I will try as best I can to live just one more day.

To give you time to care for me and share your love and fears.

I know you're sad and afraid, because I see your tears.

I'll not be far, I promise that,

And hope you'll always know that my spirit

Will be close to you wherever you may go.

Thank you so for loving me, you know I love you too.

That's why it's hard to say good-bye and end this life with you.

So hold me now, just one more time

And let me hear you say,

because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.
