“ ...As your team mom we had many memories traveling the country over the yrs watching all the kids grow into better players and then men. I remember one of our last conversations of me telling you to stay out my DM on IG with all your videos because I had gotten like 15 in one night but now I will miss all the memories that you used to send us and the FB post you tagged me in about the kids and their accomplishments over the yrs..Rest well Unc P knowing that you have touched many lives and have done a wonderful job with Ashley,Joey and Paulie. May your legacy continue....Love Kesha(New Jack City LOL)

My deepest condolences to the family

“ My cousin Tre we are more like brother and sister rather than cousins. I remember all the fun times we had together me, you, Chucky, Nai, Angie, Joey and Aneesah in the back room at mom moms watching videos, bussing on each other, and laughing until we cried! I admire the way you gave your time to all the people you cared about! I have so many memories that I think about and smile. How you got mad at me when I was still friends with my Dawn K who you broke up 😊 And when we were about 7 and cousin Chucky told me you liked me and I said ewwwww we're cousins. We always told the same stories over and over when we were together. I love and miss you Triz #UNKP

“ You changed my life and introduced me to a world I didn't know existed. You opened up your family to me and my own family grew because of it. I've created so many lifelong relationships and had so many opportunities and a lot of that all began when I was 10. Basketball was just the language you could use to help us figure this life thing out and navigate society as young, athletic and intelligent men. We all thank you. I'll never forget the impact you had on my life OG. It's nice to see you finally getting those flowers.
