“OMG!!!! Rose and I have been friends for many years. I've been thinking about her a lot recently and said to myself that I want to visit my friend at her home, I just couldn't remember her exact address however I knew where she lived just not the exact address. I'm so sorry to hear that my friend Rose passed away it really breaks my heart!!!! 💔 Rose was a beautiful person and loved her family especially her children she was truly a dedicated mom and raised good nice children. We met years ago at school while studying typing /office work and have remained friends all these years. We always enjoyed each other's company!! I convinced her to join Bally's with me we would work out swim enjoy the suna go to dances at the church we even visited her daughter on a day trip. We've always remains friends. Unfortunately I moved and we lost touch. Rose loved the Lord with all her heart I know she's with the angels. I kept telling myself I have to go and see Rose I should have followed my instincts!!! Now my friend is with Father God!! However I thank God for blessing me with such a wonderful person that I will truly miss. Rest in peace my friend until we meet again love you life long friend Yvette 💖💖💖💖 Lynn 💖 Jeffrey 💖 and rest of the family 💔

“ I knew Mrs. Rose. She was a kind a gentle being. She raised beautiful children and she loved Jesus. I would go visit her from time to time. She always welcomed me and greeted me with a warm smile. The last time a saw her, I was so surprised that she remembered me (because of her state). She kept asking me if I still lived in South Philly and how my Mom was. She also wanted to cook something for me. But I brought food to her. Jeffery was her care taker for the most part. But, being the last child myself, I know that Jeffery couldn't do it without the up bring of Mrs. Rose, Charles, Lynn, and Stevie. You see when you're the youngest child you have a little bit of every last one of them in you. My heart is with you all. And I pray for comfort for you all. Love always,
Naomi
