“ My condolences to the Boose family on the transition of their wonderful mother, g-mother, gg grandmother, and friend Ms. Sarah. I remember upon first meeting her how quiet she was until she got to know me a little. I remember how she welcomed her new g-son Ryan into her fold without conviction and I can still picture her holding him for the first time. I remember upon ending a conversation when I said "talk to you or see you later she would reply "if I live"...I asked her once why she said that and she said "tomorrow is not promised" and every once in a while I find myself saying it..lol....I remember that I thought she made the best Iced Tea and mac and cheese that I ever tasted...over the years we lost touch but thank goodness for FB where Stan, Juanita and I connected. When my g-daughter Alanna was born, I made sure to send pictures and Stan made sure she saw them throughout her growing up....I remember that one of her favorite old classic movies was Topper so each time it is on I think of her. Rest on Ms. Sarah... your mission on earth has been completed and you are now rejoicing in that City called Heaven. Knowing that you are now with your Father and have been reunited with your beloved Charles makes me happy....until we meet again, we here in Ga, your g-son and g-grandaughter, love you....Beverley, Ryan and Alanna...

“ I will ALWAYS remember how kind, loving and funny Mrs. Sarah was to me. She was very quiet until she got to know you. Her love of game shows, sitcoms, and the soaps made her a "best buddy" for me. We had so much in common which actually made our connection priceless. She ALWAYS wanted to know where her Stanley and Theresa were, as she relied so much on seeing the three of us daily. The bond between her son Stanley was so beautiful and I admired it so much. There was NOTHING he would not do for his mother and if Mrs. Sarah wanted something that was not on her diet and we had to tell her not now or no mom, she would holler, "STAN".(LOL)

We would laugh so hard when we would ask her what she would like for lunch or dinner and her response was, "I don't know". So off her son would prepare her meal and soon as he brought it to her, she would say, "I don't want it!"...(LOL)

She would often ask me, "Kim, where's Theresa?" She looked so forward to seeing her beautiful daughter who ironically could pass for her twin. I would often tell her, "Theresa will be here after work, she's on her way, and she's coming up the steps". When Mrs. Sarah heard Theresa's voice, she would say to her, "what took you so long". (My heart would melt). They had a absolutely beautiful mother-daughter bond. (unbreakable) Theresa would have a mani/pedi day and Mrs. Sarah really looked forward to those times. She had the most beautiful long arms, hands, and legs. WHAT A TRULY BEAUTIFUL woman who impacted me tremendously. When Theresa would stay over on the weekends and prepare her mom's meals she would go downstairs and as soon as she hit the steps, Mrs Sarah would holler, "THERESA, where you going?". (too funny) Being 90 years old surprised so many because Mrs. Sarah had a memory like a elephant! One could ask her where she lived, how many children/grands/great-grands she had and she could tell you without blinking an eye. Then she would, without fail ask you to, "RUB MY FEET!" (LOL)

The world lost a wonderful soul on 7/9/2015 but HEAVEN gained a truly beautiful angel.

I will miss spending time with her, watching her look out the window

*but what I will miss most is watching her enjoy her favorite snack, granola bars which she called "candy bars".
RIP Mrs. Sarah, I LOVE YOU.*
